LIBRARY NEWS

Ponca City Library

PONCA CITY LIBRARY WILL HOST “LET’S TALK ABOUT IT”

The Ponca City Library will host “Let’s Talk about It,” a dynamic book club organized by Oklahoma Humanities that has connected curious readers across the state since 1985. This event is made possible by a grant from Oklahoma Humanities with generous funding and support from Kirkpatrick Family Fund, McCasland Foundation, Oklahoma City Community Foundation, Union Pacific, and Oklahoma City University.

The theme this semester is: “Crime and Comedy: The Lighter Side of Murder and Misdemeanor.” This theme explores the growing trend in comic crime fiction through books that feature both unlikely investigators as well as perpetrators.

During these programs, a book is distributed to interested community members in advance for reading. A scholar will come present background information on the book, author and themes for the audience and help facilitate a discussion with those present. The book discussions will be on designated Thursdays from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. in the Library Programming Room.

Books in the Series include:

February 22 - The Code of the Woosters by P. G. Wodehouse

March 14 - The Burglar Who Traded Ted Williams by Lawrence Sanders

April 17 - Native Tongue by Carl Hiaasen

May 9 - Cozy: A Stanley Hastings Mystery by Parnell Hall

June 13 - One for the Money by Janet Evanovich

Please sign up for the programs in advance at the Reference Desk for planning purposes. A limited number of copies of the first book are available.
